"EVENING MEALS AT SCHOOL" WAS INSPIRED BY THE LIFE FARM-TO-SCHOOL PROGRAM. Students at the Lopez School are growing vegetables and herbs for the cafeteria, learning first hand about eating turnips, leeks and cabbage, watching little plants emerge from seeds and become part of their salad in the lunch room. Evening Meals at School is a way to share the joy of local food with the whole community and strengthen the local food system! Many thanks to all donors, volunteers & participants!
